Dear Pastor and Fellow Laborers,

*"To every thing there is a season,
and a time to every purpose under the heaven:"
Ecclesiastes 3:1*

We thank the Lord for safely bringing us back to Africa. With no problems on return flights, connections, layovers, or extra baggage issues. Many people don't understand what a furlough entails, but Cindy and I both agree that there truly is "no place like home."

Grandma and I are thankful for the experiences and connections we've made with our grandchildren. We are especially thankful for the quality time spent with all our grandchildren. A flood of memories and pictures accompanied us back home and with God's help, those memories will live on. In Chicago, we enjoyed a special treat as we toured the Pacific Garden Mission and attended a live drama called "Unshackled".

We are deeply grateful for the opportunity to visit with our supporting churches across the country and are eager to reconnect with those we missed during this furlough. We are currently reconnecting with our teams on the ground and actively pursuing new ministry opportunities. Prayer is crucial as we begin this important transition. Evangelist Bill Smith and his daughter Lydia have done a remarkable job ministering in our absence. Their unwavering friendship and love are invaluable to us, fellow missionaries and countless Zimbabweans. May the Lord continue to give us opportunities to be a light to those we seek to win.

We earnestly seek prayers for the following

For of Him, and through Him,
and to Him are all things!

1. Wisdom as we settle back into the field
2. God's guidance in identifying new ministry opportunities
3. Unity among established churches
4. Overall prostate health as PSA levels vary—from 9.1 in Austin to 6.5 in Harare.

Love Jeff & Cindy
