“Now I beseech you, brethren, for the Lord Jesus Christ’s sake, and for the love of the Spirit, that ye strive together with me in your prayers to God for me;” Romans 15:30

Dear Church,

As a pastor, I tried to keep an open mind and heart for what our missionaries go through and the needs they might have, not only while on the field but also on deputation. No one truly knows the blessings and bumps of deputation except those who have personally walked that journey – the Lord has given us this knowledge. As much as we are enjoying deputation, please pray that we raise our support quickly so we can get up to New England sooner than later.

The Lord opened the doors to eighteen churches in the past two months who gave us an opportunity to present our ministry, besides those, three special meetings where we were able to present the opportunity for the preachers to hear how their churches can labor with us so they too can have fruit in New England. God’s hand has been upon our labor; three churches took us on for monthly support during this time while others are seeking the Lord’s direction and timing to labor with us.

As I write this letter, we are sitting in a prophet’s chamber in central Florida, where we will have the privilege to present our ministry in this church during tonight’s mid-week service. Thank God for another church who still has the church doors open mid-week, giving the people here a place to hear God’s word and an opportunity for the Spirit of the Lord to move in their hearts. Sheryl and I were thrilled as we went out with this church soul winning last Saturday, reaching out searching for boys and girls, moms and dads to ride their church bus.

The Lord has given us many blessings. One of which, we meet people in many churches who have roots in New England. One precious lady who we met in a church in New Port Richey was visiting her childhood hometown in Maine. She noticed we were in Maine the same time she was visiting, she contacted us, and we met up with her for coffee. A couple weeks later, after she had gone back home to central Florida, we were also presenting our ministry in various churches near her. We just had lunch with her yesterday. One of the reasons for our newfound friendship, is that she has such a burden for the people of her native land. She has been praying for the Lord to raise up a good Baptist church in that area of Maine. New England is such a needy place – they need the gospel.

Another blessing, a lovely couple was used of the Lord to provide brakes for our vehicle. I’ll never forget the words out of his mouth, “we would count it a privilege to do this for you”. He was a servant of the Lord to minister to a servant of the Lord. God is so good.

“I have planted, Apollos watered; but God gave the increase. So then neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase. Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labour. For we are labourers together with God: ye are God’s husbandry, ye are God’s building.” I Cor. 3:6-9
